¹ Refers primarily to individuals disqualified for moral reasons; for example, criminals, individuals discharged from the service under conditions other than honorable, etc. It includes also aliens.

² "Trainability Limited (V-O)" refers to medically qualified registrants who passed the AFQT (Armed Forces Qualification Test), but failed to attain the required minimum on the ACB (Army Classification Battery) tests, effective since August 1958. The latter tests are administered to registrants classified as Mental Group IV on the basis of the AFQT.
