

Sunday, May 26:

9 a. m. Opening address.

Monday, May 27 (first day):

1. Map reading.
2. Field sketching.
3. Histopathology and bacteriology of war wounds.
4. Bathing, delousing, and laundrying.

Tuesday, May 28 (second day):

1. Field orders.
2. Application and demonstration of Thomas and other splints.
3. {
4. { Dugouts and their camouflage.

Wednesday, May 29 (third day):

1. The Army kitchen.
2. Primary, primary delayed, and secondary sutures.
3. Regimental and battalion aid stations in this war.
4. The ambulance company and its dressing station and the field hospital.

Friday, May 31 (fourth day):

1. The evacuation hospital.
2. Principles of war surgery.
3. Malingering.
4. War-wound infection and abdominal injuries.