

Daily, except Sundays and holidays, 7.20 a. m., setting-up exercises.

First period, 9 to 10.30 a. m.; second period, 10.30 a. m. to 12 m.; third period, 1.30 to 3 p. m.; fourth period, 3 to 4.30 p. m.

Wednesday, August 21:

1. Opening address.
2. Organization of the American Expeditionary Forces.
3. Mental hygiene.
4. The physiological and pathological effects of toxic gases.

Thursday, August 22:

1. }
2. } General gas instruction (beginning
3. } at 8.30 a. m.).
4. }

Friday, August 23:

1. }
2. } General gas instruction (beginning
3. } at 8.30 a. m.).
4. }

Saturday, August 24:

1. Disposition of auxiliary troops on the march and in combat.
2. The treatment of effects produced by suffocating gases.
3. The treatment of effects produced by vesicant gases.
4. Evacuation of wounded in a war of movement; experiences in the 1st Division.

Sunday, August 25:

1 p. m.

Symposium on the work of the 26th Division, American Expeditionary Forces, in the last Battle of the Marne.

Monday, August 26:

1. Disposition of auxiliary and combat troops on the march and in combat.
2. Military hygiene.
3. General personal hygiene.
4. Map and terrain exercises.

Tuesday, August 27:

1. Military hygiene.
2. Artillery and Infantry weapons.
3. Map and terrain exercises.
4. Causes of gas casualties.

Wednesday, August 28:

1. }
2. } Map and terrain exercises.
3. Baths, disinfection, and field laundries.
4. The regimental and battalion surgeon in a war of movement.

Thursday, August 29:

1. Reserve and front-line sanitation.
2. Fire cover, dugouts, camouflage, etc.
3. } Demonstration of Infantry and Medical Department; dugouts, camouflage, and gas offensive and defensive.
4. }

Friday, August 30:

1. Sanitation in billeting areas and troop movements.
2. Evacuation of wounded.
3. }
4. } Sanitary devices in the school area.