

FIG. 149.—Position for first exposure in localization of projectiles in the eye. Be certain that the tube is centered accurately over the cone so that both ball and cone will be superimposed