

FIG. 162.—A, Approximation of the divided bundle accomplished by relieving tension in the approximation of the resected sheath. B, The thickened sheath is not entirely closed for fear of strangulation; the defect is covered by a fat transplant. (Ney. Annals of Surgery, 1921)