

FIG. 223.—Longitudinal section through the central wound region, cable-auto-nerve transplant, Experiment No. 7, 26 days after operation; pyridine-silver preparation. The central end is found directed toward the left. The actual wound region found between the central and distal loops of the respective sutures is clearly seen in the figure.