

FIG. 141.—This and Figure 142 show the provisional appliance used in the American Expeditionary Forces for above-the-knee amputation. Lateral view with the peg flexed. The frame can be adjusted to the length of the stump.