

FIG. 121.—Rabbit. Six days after application of mustard gas. Treatment with zinc oxide paste five minutes after application. There was no edema stage. Epidermis is dead and there is a moderate inflammatory reaction in the corium. Reaction much less intense than in control