

FIG. 125.—Rabbit. Six days after application, untreated. Intermediate zone. Separation of necrotic epidermis and papillary layer, with infiltration of leucocytes into the necrotic tissue. Fibroblastic proliferation in lower part of dermis, with regeneration of hair follicles. Intense congestion of subcutaneous vessels