

FIG. 138.—Completely healed mustard-gas lesion four weeks after injury treated 12 days with grease method, with increasing infection and gangrene. Under the wet Dakin and saline method infection was checked promptly and healing begun. Regeneration of epidermis from hair follicles and sweat glands