

FIG. 140.—Diffuse erythema of the skin due to exposure for 10 to 12 minutes to strong concentration of mustard gas. Treated one week by the grease method, with increasing infection of the dead skin, particularly around the genitals and arms. Change of treatment to the wet Dakin and saline methods resulted in prompt healing