

FIG. 171.—Cornea 3½ days after application of standard droplet of dichlorethylsulphide. Complete necrosis of corneal tissue; ulceration of surface; beginning infiltration with polynuclear leucocytes and collection of polynuclear leucocytes along the line of the necrotic endothelium