

FIG. 175.—Section of corneal vertex seven days after application of standard droplet of dichlorethylsulphide. Ulcerated surface. Infiltration of necrotic cornea with polynuclears and scattered fibroblasts. Beginning regeneration of endothelium