

FIG. 180.—Section from inferior portion of corneal limbus, seven weeks after application of standard droplet of dichlorethylsulphide. Partial regeneration of corneal epithelium. Marked polynuclear infiltration and advanced vascularization and repair of the substantia propria. Regeneration of the endothelium of the anterior chamber