

FIG. 191.—Rabbit. Exposed 40 minutes to a 1:110,000 concentration. Killed 12 hours after removal from gassing chamber. Section of lung. Marked congestion, edema, and area of partial atelectasis alternating with those of emphysema