

FIG. 192.—Exposed 20 minutes to a concentration of 1:15,000. Killed 36 hours after gassing. Section of trachea showing acute catarrhal desquamative tracheitis; marked mucoid degeneration of the epithelium; congestion and edema of the submucosa. Lumen filled with mucous containing many desquamated cells