

FIG. 24.—Case 53. Mustard-gas burn (history of exposure also to green and blue cross shells), 8 days' duration. Lung, small bronchus, lined with dense granulation tissue; thickening of septa of adjacent alveoli, which contain plugs of dense fibrin undergoing early organization