

FIG. 52.—Higher magnification of an area of focal necrosis such as is shown in Figure 51. Death occurred six hours after gassing. The alveolar walls about an atrium are completely hyalinized and stain deeply with eosin