

FIG. 41.—The osteoperiosteal graft has been raised and hinged on the periorbital border which lines one side of the rim of the defect. The drawing shows suture of the graft in position, with its bony surface in contact with the scalp.