

FIG. 311.—From a longitudinal section of homo-nerve transplant, stored in 50 per cent alcohol for 10 days before use as transplant; Experiment No. 206. Nerve removed 62 days after operation. Note the regular course of the new neuraxon, evident as black lines, as they pass distally within the neurolemma sheaths of the transplanted nerve fibers.