

FIG. 234.—Cross section of auto-nerve transplant, wrapped in alcoholized Cargile membrane, Experiment No. 236, terminated 272 days after the operation; pyridine-silver preparation. The Cargile membrane as a wavy, undulating layer embedded in the fibrous tissue surrounding the nerve trunk. Note the neurotization of the transplanted nerve segment as seen in the figure