

FIG. 235.—Cross section of an auto-nerve transplant, wrapped in an auto-fascial sheath, Experiment No. 240, terminated 14 days after operation; formalin fixation iron-haematoxylin staining. Note the funicular structure of the two ulnar nerves used as transplants. The tube of fascia is clearly evident in the figure. Epineural fibrous tissue is materially increased