

FIG. 236.—Cross section of auto-nerve transplant wrapped in auto-fascial sheath, Experiment No. 341, terminated 15 days after operation; formalin fixation, iron-haematoxylin staining. The very complete auto-fascial tube formed is evident in the section. Connective tissue proliferation is clearly recognized but is not excessive