

FIG. 11.—Treatment without splints, due to extensive wounds. The extension should be obtained by adhesive plaster to the skin wherever possible, but if not feasible the sling as pictured in Figure 10 may be used